

Better Because Of You

I'm better because of you, I'm better because of your Love.

My Life has been enriched by your sweetness, which came from heaven above.

I had forgotten what happiness feels like, but everything now feels so right.

And as we grow older in Grace, someday I hope to have you as my wife.

Kindness and charity are your gifts to the world.

And I'm so glad you're my girl.

Baby having your Love means the world to me.

And living happily ever after, is how it will be.
